

[pages 93-114]

- 1. Paul at Athens is distressed by soul-destroying _____, but he doesn't let it show. He proceeds in a _____ manner in order to keep the spiritual _____ going. (p.93-94 | k.1578)

- 2. Paul's theology is essentially _____ yet heavily shaped by the truth that God has acted in Jesus the _____ to fulfill God's promise to Abraham of blessing the whole world through Abraham's descendants. (p.94 | k.1588)

- 3. From what core belief does Paul's anger at idolotry arise? (p.94 | k.1593)

- 4. Early in the second century A.D., the Christian refusal to worship none but the God revealed in Scripture and supremely in _____ the _____ led to Christians being called _____ because they rejected the gods and goddesses of the Greek pantheon. (p.95 | k.1603)

- 5. The authors argue that Christians cannot assume that if someone uses the word god, they mean what Christians mean. Why do you think this might be the case? (p.96 | k.1624)

- 6. Explain how Christians might be able to dismiss caricatures of the God of the Bible. (p.97 | k.1644)

[pages 93-114]

7. Few in Paul's day would have been true _____, or denied that there was some sort of deity in some form. (p.98 | k.1654)

8. What is the difference between envy and jealousy? (p.101 | k.1701)

9. What scripture implies Paul's jealousy for God? Describe what this means. (p.101-102 | k.1701)

10. How did Paul's belief that God is creator influence his speech in Acts? (p.103 | k.1753)

11. Another fundamental Jewish belief that Paul held is that God is _____ (he does not do evil) and _____ (he holds evildoers accountable). (p.103 | k.1755)

12. What is natural theology? (p.106 | k.1801)

[pages 93-114]

13. In what ways does Paul use natural theology in his speeches? (p.106-107 | k.1801)

14. What two things follow if God exists and has revealed himself in nature and desires to relate to human beings? (p.107 | k.1821)

15. How do the authors describe “apatheists”? (p.108 | k.1841)

16. How does Paul urge his listeners to seek God? (p.109 | k.1869)

17. What Paul demonstrates in his speech is that he begins where his _____ is, using concepts and _____ familiar to them. Once he has taken his hearers that far, however, he then progresses to the _____ of the gospel. (p.110 | k.1874)

The Gospel in the Marketplace of Ideas

Paul's Mars Hill Experience for Our Pluralistic World

by Paul Copan & Kenneth D. Litwalk

[pages 93-114]

18. What three points does Paul cover regarding the Gospel when writing to the Corinthians? (p.110 | k.1877)

19. How did Paul communicate to his listeners God's plan for history? (p.111 | k.1927)

The Gospel in the Marketplace of Ideas
Paul's Mars Hill Experience for Our Pluralistic World

by Paul Copan & Kenneth D. Litwalk