Message from the Director

It is said that knowledge is power.

You hold in your hand an important piece of information, which will give you more knowledge about what our government does in our names.

The Peace Action Education Fund 2003 Congressional Voting Record details the votes of every Member of Congress on crucial issues of war and peace: funding for the occupation of Iraq, more "usable" nuclear weapons programs, arms sales to human rights abusing governments, and funding for the United Nations, among others.

The information in this voting record will enable you to open a dialogue with your Representatives and Senators regarding their stance on peace and disarmament. The voting record is a great tool to distribute to friends, family, co-workers, and anyone that shares your interest in engaging in our democracy as an active participant.

We thank those members of Congress who earned 100% on this record. They are part of a growing force willing to stand up for a new vision for US foreign policy. We know that we will make our nation safer by eliminating the threat of weapons of mass destruction, by supporting human rights and democracy through ending arms sales to dictators, and by increasing international cooperation.

Hundreds of organizations, representing millions of people, have endorsed Peace Action's Campaign for a New Foreign Policy. They agree: it's time for a foreign policy more aligned with American values. Help us challenge members of Congress to endorse this campaign; go to www.peace-action.org.

Sincerely,

Kevin M. Martin
