

the MINTWOOD MEDIA COLLECTIVE presents
MIKE FLUGENNOCK'S

PROTEST POSTER
ART CALENDAR

The Mintwood Media Collective
proudly presents
Mike Flugenock's First Annual
PROTEST POSTER
ART CALENDAR!
available August 2003!

"The work is cantankerous, unreasonable, shocking, paranoid, brilliant - in the best tradition of an old, in-your-face medium that has never faded despite television and the Internet."

-DAVID MONTGOMERY, the Washington Post, Sept. 27, 2002

This calendar contains 24 of the Collective's favorite posters that until now have only been seen on the lampposts of Washington, DC and Mike's Web site, "When I'm Out On The Street" at www.sinkers.org/posters. It exposes Mike Flugenock's razor-sharp political wit to a wider audience and stimulates people's minds from a grassroots left perspective.

Each month's featured poster is reproduced at 11x17 inches, along with a smaller "companion piece," and the calendar opens to 11x35 inches.

Now available for wholesale purchase!
Inquire for details and samples at 202.986.6186, or email
adam@mintwood.com.

| | |
|-----------------|----------|
| 1-5 calendars | $10 ea. |
| 6-49 calendars | $9 ea. |
| 50-99 calendars | $8 ea. |
| 100+ calendars | $7 ea. |

The MINTWOOD MEDIA COLLECTIVE is a progressive, worker-owned and operated public relations firm in Washington, DC. Corresponding with our politics, this calendar was printed using environmentally responsible [90% post-consumer waste, 10% hemp/flax] paper from Living Tree Paper.