Political Party Caucus Information

Precinct Caucus Definition

Precinct caucuses are meetings organized by Colorado's political parties to begin the process of selecting candidates and policy positions for the 2010 election. Caucuses are held in locations across Colorado and are open to the public.

Caucus Dates

The precinct caucuses will be held on March 16, 2010.

[Section 1-3-102, C.R.S.]

Attending Caucus

Precinct caucuses are open to the public and participation is encouraged by the political parties.

[Section 1-3-102, C.R.S.]

Requirements to Vote in a Precinct Caucus

In order to vote in any precinct caucus of a political party the voter must meet the following requirements:

- The voter must be a resident of the precinct for at least 30 days;
- The voter must have registered to vote no later than February 16, 2010;
- The voter must have been affiliated with the party holding the caucus by January 19, 2010;
 - Except that any voter who turns 18 or becomes a naturalized citizen during the two months prior to the caucus may vote in the caucus even though he or she has not been affiliated with the political party for the required time period.

[Section 1-3-101 C.R.S.]

Precinct Caucus Locations

Precinct caucuses may be held in a public place or a private home that is open to the public during the caucus. The caucus location must be either within the precinct or proximate to the precinct. The county central committee or executive committee of the political party is responsible for determining the time and place of the caucus.

[Section 1-3-102, C.R.S.]

Notice of Caucus

All places established for holding precinct caucuses must be designated by a sign posted no later than March 4, 2010.

[Section 1-4-602, C.R.S.]

Caucus Activities

Caucus attendees may elect officers who will be responsible for organizing political activities within the precinct. Caucus attendees may also elect delegates and alternates to represent the precinct at the political party's county or district convention.

Obtaining Precinct Information

A voter can determine the precinct that they are currently registered in by visiting the secretary of state website and reviewing their voter registration information.
