DECLARATION OF BONUS.

ROYAL EXCHANGE ASSURANCE OFFICE,
London, January, 1858.

The Governors and Directors have to adnounce to the holders of life policies effected on the system of participation in profits adopted by the forporation in December, 1841, that a SECOND SEPTENNIAL BONUS has been declared in respect of the surplus realised on that account. Such bonus attaches to all policies—ffected subsequently to 1841 for the whole term of life, on the participating scale of premium—which were subsisting up to the close of the 31st day of December, 1855, and on which three or more amusal premiums had then been paid.
The following table skows the amount of reversionary bonus added to British policies of 14 years' standing, for the sum of £1,000 acch.

Age when Assured.	Addition made in 1848.	Further Addition in 1855.	Total Addition.	Per Cent. per Annum on the Sum Assured.	Per Con to Premi

This Society is oscied upon any processors and content the payment of the amount assured certain and "absolute."

The Society embraces all the liberal improvements peculiar to modern institutions of a like nature; and the business comprises all descriptions of risk connected with Life Assurance, including Annutites, Procent and Deferred; Endowments, or Deferred Absolute Payments; and Loans on approved Security.

The profits will be divided every five years, three-fourths to the Assured, and one-fourth to the Proprietors.

A large portion of the share capital of the Company has been already subscribed for by responsible parties.

A deposit of ten shillings per share, being 10 per cent. on the capital, must be paid on allotment, and beyond this no further call is contemplated; but those who are desirous of paying up their shares in full will be at liberty to do so.

Under the Company's Deed of Incorporation shareholders are entitled to a yearly dividlend of 5 per cent. on the amount of their paid-up capital, together with 25 per cent. of the profits, the remaining 75 per cent. being divisible among the policy-holders.

As a rule, it may be stated that no investment has been so steadily profitable and secure as in shares in Life Assurance Companies; and this is further shown by the following remarkable Table, extracted from Share Lists.
