The Giuliano Family

One of the most prominent & influential jewellery families in England during the late 19th & early 20th centuries.

Carlo Giuliano (1831 – 1895) born in Italy & moved to London in the 1860's. Opening his first retail premises in Piccadilly in 1874 specialising in renaissance style jewellery. Upon his death in 1895 Carlo bequeathed a piece of his jewellery to each of his most loyal clients.

Carlo & Arthur

The Sons of Carlo Giuliano inherited the business in 1895, moving the business to Knightsbridge in 1912 & closing in 1914 when Arthur tragically passed away.

Mario Buccellati (1891 – 1965) ~ the start of the dynasty

In 1919 returning after the war Mario found that the business in Milan that he had worked for had been sold. He purchased the business from the new owners & went on to open many shops including in the United States.
