

Copenhagen Summer School in Phenomenology and Philosophy of Mind

Center for Subjectivity Research, University of Copenhagen
August 23—27, 2010.

This summer school will provide essential insights into central themes within the philosophy of mind, viewed from a phenomenological perspective.

Topics include: consciousness, intentionality, perception, embodiment, the self, and intersubjectivity.

The course will consist of a mixture of lectures and seminars (25 hours total), aimed at advanced MA students and PhD students.

Speakers will include: Prof. Sara Heinämaa (Helsinki), Prof. Hans Ruin (Södertörn), Dr. Komarine Romdenh-Romluc (Nottingham), Prof. Dan Zahavi (Copenhagen), Dr. Søren Overgaard (Copenhagen)

Space is limited, so please register early. In any case, registration must be completed (in writing) by April 30, 2010.

Students interested in giving a short presentation (20 minutes + 10 minutes discussion) must submit an abstract when they register.

Language: English

Venue: University of Copenhagen

We welcome students from all countries. The summer school is free of charge.
