

RESOURCES

Selected List of National Organizations Supporting Reproductive Rights

This is only a partial list of organizations working on these issues, and it is constantly updated. If you would like to add an organization to this list, please see the evaluation form in this kit. Our up-to-date resource listing is available on our web site at www.publiceye.org.

Abortion Access Project of Massachusetts

552 Massachusetts Avenue, Suite 215, Cambridge, MA 02139, (617) 661-1161, fax (617) 492-1915, info@repro-activist.org, www.abortionaccess.org

Works on issues of abortion access, especially with hospitals and provider training; available for technical assistance. Publishes fact sheets and pamphlets on organizing medical students and health care providers for choice and abortion access. Projects include the Hospital Access Collaborative and the New England Midlevel Training Consortium.

Alan Guttmacher Institute

120 Wall Street, New York, NY 10005, (212) 248-1111, fax (212) 248-1951

1120 Connecticut Avenue, NW, Suite 460, Washington, DC 20036, (202) 296-4012, fax (202) 223-5756, info@agi-usa.org, www.agi-usa.org

A nonprofit research and policy institute that studies reproductive health issues, including abortion, contraception, teen pregnancy, and sexually transmitted diseases. Publishes reports, articles, and fact sheets. An excellent source of information and statistics on all aspects of reproductive health, particularly abortion and contraception.

ACLU Reproductive Freedom Project

125 Broad Street, New York, NY 10004, (212) 549-2633, rfp@aclu.org, www.aclu.org/issues/reproduct/hmrr.html

Seeks to promote through litigation, advocacy, and public education the rights of women to control their reproduction free from government coercion or hindrance. This includes access to sexuality education, contraception, abortion, prenatal care, and child-bearing assistance.

American Medical Women's Association

801 North Fairfax Street, Suite 400, Alexandria, VA 22314, (703) 838-0500, fax (703) 549-3864, info@amwa-doc.org, www.amwa-doc.org

Promotes women's health and works to increase the influence of women in medicine. Publishes a newsletter, a bimonthly journal, and curricula, including the Reproductive Health Model Curriculum, a resource for medical students and professors to address the need for quality reproductive health training. Maintains the Reproductive Health Initiative to bring educational opportunities to physicians and medical students.

Americans for Religious Liberty

P.O. Box 6656, Silver Spring, MD 20916, (301) 598-2447, arinc@erols.com

A nonprofit public interest education organization dedicated to preserving the separation of church and state. Monitors the right on a number of issues, including abortion politics. Publishes The Voice of Reason newsletter.

Americans United for Separation of Church and State

1816 Jefferson Place, NW, Washington, DC 20036, (202) 466-3234, fax (202) 466-2587, www.au.org

Publishes detailed reports on religious right. Regularly produces reports, speeches and other materials that expose attempts of conservative Christian organizations to control public policy.

Asian and Pacific Islanders for Reproductive Health

310 8th Street, Suite 100, Oakland, CA 94607, (510) 268-8988, fax (510) 268-8181, apirh@igc.org

Collaborates with clinics, organizations and individuals to promote safe and viable options for the reproductive health and sexual well being of Asian and Pacific Islander women and girls. Conducts outreach and education projects, promotes community-based research and advocates for and organizes with low-income and refugee communities in California.

Bay Area Coalition for Our Reproductive Rights (BACORR)

750 La Playa, #730, San Francisco, CA 94121, (415) 437-4032, tburghardt@igc.apc.org,
www.webcom.com/~pinknoiz/right/bacorr.html

Coordinates spirited and militant support for reproductive health. Publishes Dialectics of Terror: A National Directory of the Direct Action Anti-Abortion Movement and Their Allies. BACORR issues this directory as an informational source book for activists and organizers involved in the struggle for women's liberation to use as a road map of Christian Right extremist organizations active today.

The Boston Women's Health Book Collective

240a Elm Street, Somerville, MA 02144,
(617) 625-0277, fax (617) 625-0294,
office@bwhbc.org,
www.ourbodiesourselves.org

A nonprofit, public interest women's health education, advocacy and consulting organization. Has been publishing Our Bodies, Ourselves (OBOS) since 1970, with the goal of making accurate health and medical information accessible to a broad audience by weaving women's stories into a framework of practical, clearly written text. In addition, identifies and collaborates with individuals and organizations providing services, generating research and policy analysis, and organizing for social change. Works toward inspiring and empowering women to become engaged in the political aspects of sustaining good health for themselves and their communities.

Campaign for Access and Reproductive Equity

P.O. Box 48665, Washington, D.C. 20002-0665,
(202) 543-7140, fax (202) 543-7123

A project of the National Network of Abortion Funds, this two-year multi-issue, grassroots, public education effort will attempt to link issues of health care access, welfare reform and sexuality education through an organizing effort.

Canadian Abortion Rights Action League (CARAL)

1 Nicholas Street, Suite 726, Ottawa, ON, K1N 7B7, (888) 642-2725, fax (613) 789-9960, caral@caral.ca,
www.caral.ca

Canada's pro-choice, volunteer organization working exclusively to ensure that all women have total reproductive freedom to exercise the right to safe, accessible abortion.

Catholics for a Free Choice

1436 U Street, NW, Suite 301, Washington, DC
20009, (202) 986-6093, fax (202) 332-7995,
www.cath4choice.org

Through discourse, education, and advocacy, CFFC advances sexual and reproductive ethics that are based on justice and a commitment to women's well being, and respect and affirm the moral capacity of women and men to make responsible decisions about their lives.

Center for Democratic Renewal

P.O. Box 50469, Atlanta, GA 30302,
(404) 221-0025, www.thecdr.org

Monitors, exposes, and counters hate groups, particularly white supremacists. Assists communities in organizing against hate groups in their areas. Publishes three annual magazines, plus pamphlets and reports, including "Women's Watch: Violence in the Anti-Abortion Movement."

Center for Reproductive Law and Policy

120 Wall Street, 18th Floor, New York, NY 10005,
(212) 514-5534, fax (212) 514-5538

1146 19th Street, NW, Washington, DC 20036, (202)
530-2975, fax (202) 530-2976, www.crlp.org

Non-profit legal and policy advocacy organization dedicated to promoting women's reproductive rights through programs that engage in litigation, policy analysis, legal research, and public education. Promotes women's reproductive health and rights both domestically and internationally. Produces reports, organizing packets, and educational materials.

Center for Women Policy Studies

1211 Connecticut Avenue, NW, Suite 312,
Washington, DC 20036, (202) 872-1770,
fax (202) 296-8962, cwps@centerwomenpolicy.org,
www.centerwomenpolicy.org

A national nonprofit, multi-ethnic and multi-cultural feminist, multi-issue policy research and advocacy institution which seeks to incorporate the perspectives of women into the formulation of public policy. Focuses on: reproductive rights/health, women and AIDS, welfare reform, workplace diversity, violence and access to health care. Works with a national network of activist women state legislators to implement principles of Beijing through the Center's Contract with Women of the USA. Publishes various materials, including an Affiliates Quarterly Report.

Childbirth by Choice Trust

344 Bloor Street W., Suite 502, Toronto, ON M5S 3A7, (416) 961-7812, fax (416) 961-5771, info@cbctrust.com, www.cbctrust.com

The Childbirth by Choice Trust educates the public about fertility control issues—like contraceptive use, unintended pregnancy and abortion—so that people have the information they need to make up their minds about these matters. Childbirth by Choice refers to childbearing which is done willingly, through prevention of unwanted pregnancies and availability of options for women who are unhappily pregnant: abortion or childbirth, parenting or adoption.

Choice USA

1010 Wisconsin Ave. N.W., Suite 410, Washington, D.C. 20007, (202) 965-7700, fax (202) 965-7701, choiceusa@earthlink.net, www.choiceusa.org

A national activist organization whose work targets young people aged 15-25. Projects encompass media, grassroots organizing, activist training, leadership development strategies, and on-going public opinion research to counter anti-choice myths with accurate information, frame pro-choice issues in terms that resonate with young people's values and experiences, build a broad base of grassroots support, and identify/train a corps of young activists leaders.

Civil Liberties and Public Policy Program (CLPP)

Hampshire College, Amherst, MA 01002, (413) 559-5645, fax (413) 559-6045, clpp@hampshire.edu, <http://hamp.hampshire.edu/~clpp>

A national organization dedicated to reproductive rights activism and education. CLPP works with campus and community groups nationwide through coordination of the National Young Women's Day of Action and its annual conference—the Fight for Abortion Rights and Reproductive Freedom.

Clara Bell Duvall Education Fund

125 South 9th Street, Suite 304, Philadelphia, PA 19107, (215) 629-0111, duvall@libertynet.org, www.libertynet.org/duvall

A clearinghouse for current and historic information about the status of reproductive health care as well as a focal point for statewide advocacy and action on related concerns. Builds communication between the academic and activist communities. Publishes brochures and fact sheets on abortion in Pennsylvania.

Feminist Majority Foundation

1600 Wilson Boulevard, Suite 801, Arlington, VA 22209, (703) 522-2214, fax (703) 522-2219

8105 West 3rd Street, Suite 1, Los Angeles, CA 90048, (323) 651-0495, femmaj@feminist.org, www.feminist.org

The Feminist Majority Foundation is dedicated to equality and seeks to eliminate discrimination of all kinds by advocating non-violence and working to eliminate social and economic injustices in America and worldwide. Major programs include the National Clinic Access Project, the Campaign for RU-486 (Mifepristone) and Contraceptive Research, and Choices Campus Campaign. The National Clinic Access Project, which began in 1989, assists clinics nationwide through public education, original research, community organizing, emergency clinic assistance, and its Anti-Abortion Violence Watch publication.

Institute for Democracy Studies

177 East 87th Street, Suite 501, New York, NY 10128, (212) 423-9237, fax (212) 423-9352, info@institutefordemocracy.org, www.institutefordemocracy.org/index.html

Founded in 1999, the Institute for Democracy Studies is a nonprofit research and educational center devoted to the study of anti-democratic religious and political movements and organizations in the U.S. and internationally. IDS publications document the agendas, structures, and funding of these groups. The Institute currently maintains research programs in three areas: law, religion, and reproductive rights. The Reproductive Rights and Democracy Program of IDS is engaged in domestic and international research on the major structures opposed to reproductive rights from abortion to contraception and sexuality education. These initiatives often originate from and are generated by profound opposition to democratic institutions and even constitutional democracy itself. IDS publishes briefing papers and an investigative newsletter, IDS Insights.

Institute for First Amendment Studies

P.O. Box 589, Great Barrington, MA 01230, comments@ifas.org, www.ifas.org

Gathers data and prepares newsletters and reports about groups and individuals who pose a threat to First Amendment freedoms.

International Women's Health Coalition

24 East 21st Street, New York, NY 10010,
(212) 979-8500, iwhc@igc.apc.org, www.iwhc.org

Works with individuals and groups in Africa, Asia, and Latin America to promote women's reproductive and sexual health rights. Provides technical, managerial, moral, and financial support to reproductive health providers, advocacy groups, and women's organizations in the global south. Publishes books and position papers and maintains a global communications network of 6,000 individuals and organizations in 143 countries.

Lambda Legal Defense and Education Fund

120 Wall St., Suite 1500 New York, NY 10005,
(212) 809-8585, fax (212) 809-2306

6030 Wilshire Boulevard, Suite 200, Los Angeles, CA 90036, (323) 937-2728, fax (213) 937-0601

11 East Adams St., Suite 1008, Chicago, IL 60603,
(312) 663-4413

1447 NE Peachtree St, Suite 10004, Atlanta, GA 30309, (404) 897-1880, lambda@lambdalegal.org, www.lambdalegal.org

Works toward achieving full recognition of the civil rights of lesbians, gay men, and people with HIV/AIDS through impact litigation, education, and public policy work. Has done work on a variety of issues including lesbian and gay parenting and has worked in coalition with other organizations to promote reproductive rights. Newsletter includes a docket which tracks court cases in process.

Margaret Sanger Center International

26 Bleecker Street, New York, NY 10012,
(212) 274-7315, msci@ppnyc.org,
www.ppnyc.org/services/msci.html

As the international wing of Planned Parenthood of New York City, MSCi works to protect women's reproductive rights abroad by offering education and training programs, and incorporating reproductive issues into primary care and traditional family services. MSCi also helps Non Governmental Organizations implement systems and provides public policy and political advocacy training as well as professional development.

Medical Students for Choice

2041 Bancroft Way, Suite 201, Berkeley, CA 94704,
(510) 540-1195, fax (510) 540-1199,
msfc@ms4c.org, www.ms4c.org

Founded in 1993 by medical students concerned about the abortion provider shortage, the lack of abortion education, and escalating violence against abortion providers. Today, they represent more than 5,000 medical students and residents who are demanding a comprehensive medical education including abortion training. MSFC works on a grassroots basis at medical schools and residency programs throughout North America, holds national and regional meetings, maintains a presence on the Internet, publishes a quarterly newsletter, and produces A Medical Student's Guide to Improving Reproductive Health Curricula.

Ms. Foundation for Women

120 Wall Street, 33rd Floor, New York, NY 10005,
(212) 742-2300, fax (212) 742-1653,
pjerido@ms.foundation.org, www.ms.foundation.org

Directs resources to progressive organizations that promote the rights of women. Awards grants, provides training, convenes grantees, and conducts public education and advocacy campaigns. Focuses on three issue areas: Women's Economic Security, Women's Health and Safety, and Girls, Young Women, and Leadership. Through the Reproductive Rights Coalition and Organizing Fund (RRCOF), provides funding, technical assistance, and peer-to-peer networking opportunities for reproductive rights activists.

National Abortion Federation

1755 Massachusetts Avenue, NW, Suite 600,
Washington, DC 20036, (202) 667-5881,
naf@prochoice.org, www.prochoice.org

HOTLINE (800) 772-9100 (M-F, 9:30-5:30 EST)

The largest professional association of abortion providers in the United States and Canada. Membership also includes individuals and organizations working in reproductive health and abortion rights. NAF's mission is to keep abortion safe, legal, and accessible. Toll-free hotline provides factual information, referrals, and assistance with funding or other barriers to accessing abortion services. Provides accredited abortion-specific continuing medical education; produces top-quality clinical resources for abortion providers; assists providers with clinic defense; advocates for abortion training at all levels of clinical education; promotes unbiased public education about abortion; and brings the provider and patient voices to public policy debates about abortion. Training materials, fact sheets, books, activist guides, and other publications for professionals and consumers are available.

National Abortion and Reproductive Rights Action League (NARAL)

1156 15th Street, NW, Suite 700, Washington, DC 20005, (202) 973-3000, fax (202) 973-3096, naral@naral.org, www.naral.org

Works to develop and sustain a constituency that uses the political process to guarantee every woman the right to make personal decisions regarding the full range of reproductive choices, including preventing unintended pregnancy, bearing healthy children, and choosing legal abortion. Produces several publications, including voting records by members of Congress and state-by-state analysis of legislation on reproductive rights.

National Asian Women's Health Organization

1850 M Street NW, Suite 230, Washington, DC 20036, (202) 331-4790, nawho@nawho.org, www.nawho.org

NAWHO's core program is the Asian Women's Reproductive and Sexual Health Empowerment Project (RSHP). Produces surveys, press releases and other public statements about the state of Asian American women's reproductive health.

National Black Women's Health Project

600 Pennsylvania Avenue, Suite 310, Washington, DC 20003, (202) 543-9311, (800) ASK-BWHP, fax (202) 543-9743, nbwhp@nbwhp.org, www.blackfamilies.com/community/groups/WomensHealth

A health advocacy organization addressing health issues faced by Black women and their families. Seeks to enable Black women to become aware of the nature of physical and mental health and the relationship between the two, and to enable Black women to take control and become active participants in their health maintenance.

National Center for the ProChoice Majority

P.O. Box 1315, Hightstown, NJ 08520, (609) 443-8780

As an independent research organization that monitors and analyzes the anti-abortion crusade, NCPCM has provided well-researched information to abortion providers, grassroots activists, the media and law enforcement about the activities of anti-abortion militants. NCPCM develops resources and motivational materials that enhance the ability of abortion providers and grassroots pro-choice organizations working to protect reproductive choice for future generations.

National Coalition of Abortion Providers

206 King Street, 2nd Floor, Alexandria, VA 22314, (703) 684-0055, fax (703) 684-5051, ronncap@aol.com, www.ncap.com

NCAP is a non-profit pro-choice organization that represents the interests of approximately 150 independent abortion providers throughout the United States (it does not represent clinics associated with the Planned Parenthood Federation of America). As well as being a lobbying organization, NCAP has established relationships with various companies that offer its members low-cost medical supplies, malpractice insurance, and long distance telephone services. NCAP seeks to honor women by advancing a candid, national "conversation" on the issue of abortion.

National Council for Research on Women

11 Hanover Square, New York, NY 10005, (212) 785-7335, fax (212) 785-7350, ncrw@ncrw.org, www.ncrw.org

The National Council for Research on Women is a working alliance of 84 women's research and policy centers, more than 3,000 affiliates and a network of over 200 international centers. NCRW's mission is to enhance the connections among research, policy analysis, advocacy, and innovative programming on behalf of women and girls.

National Council of Negro Women

633 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20004, (202) 737-0120, info@ncnw.com, www.ncnw.com

NCNW is a multi-faceted, non-profit organization that works at the national, state, local and international levels in pursuit of the goal of improving quality of life for women, children and families. NCNW consists of 38 affiliated national organizations, 250 community-based Sections chartered in 42 states, 20 college-based Sections and 60,000 individual members. NCNW has an outreach to over four million women. With a national headquarters in Washington, D.C. since 1942, NCNW currently maintains offices, in Atlanta, Brooklyn, New York, and New Orleans, and three international field offices—Dakar (Senegal), Harare (Zimbabwe), and Cairo (Egypt).

National Gay and Lesbian Task Force

1700 Kalorama Rd., NW, Washington, DC 20009-2624, (202) 332-6483, fax (202) 332-0207, ngltf@ngltf.org, www.ngltf.org

NGLTF helps to strengthen the gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender (GLBT) movement at the state and local level while connecting these activities to a national vision of change. NGLTF is the front line activist organization in the national GLBT movement. As such, it serves as the national resource center for grassroots GLBT organizations that are facing a variety of battles at the state and local levels. Through three program departments, NGLTF seeks to build the political strength of the GLBT rights movement at the grassroots level. NGLTF is a progressive organization, committed to building coalition with other communities working for social change.

National Latina Health Organization

*P.O. Box 7567, Oakland, CA 94601,
(510) 534-1362, (800) 971-5358,
<http://cnet.ucr.edu/women/nlho>*

Works towards the goal of bilingual access to quality health care and the self-empowerment of Latinas through culturally respectful educational programs, health advocacy, outreach, research, and public policy. Publishes position papers.

National Network of Abortion Funds

*c/o Civil Liberties and Public Policy Program Hampshire College, Amherst, MA 01002,
(413) 559-5645, fax (413) 559-6045,
clpp@hampshire.edu,
<http://hamp.hampshire.edu/~clpp/nnaf>*

An organization of grassroots abortion funds across the country. Produces two free publications, "Legal But Out of Reach: Experiences from the National Network of Abortion Funds" and "Building an Abortion Fund." Call NNAF for publications or information, or about membership in the Network. For referrals to abortion funds, call the National Abortion Federation hotline.

National Organization for Women (NOW)

*733 15th Street, NW, 2nd Floor, Washington, DC
20005, (202) 628-8669, fax (202) 785-8576,
now@now.org, www.now.org*

Works to bring women into full participation in the mainstream of American society, exercising all privileges and responsibilities.

National Women's Health Network

*514 10th Street, NW, Suite 400, Washington, DC
20005, (202) 347-1140, fax (202) 347-1168,
www.womenshealthnetwork.org.*

Dedicated to safeguarding women's health rights and interests, the Network advocates for better policies on women's health. The Network also provides science-based information and resource referrals to policy makers, the media and individual consumers. Priority issue areas for the Network include reproductive health, breast cancer, menopause and access to quality health care. The Network is supported by more than 12,000 individual and 300 organizational members nationwide.

National Women's Law Center

*11 Dupont Circle NW, Suite 800, Washington, DC
20036, (202) 588-5180, fax (202) 588-5185,
www.nwlc.org*

Conducts public policy research, advocacy, litigation and public education efforts to protect and advance the legal rights of women and their families, with special attention given to the concerns of low-income women.

National Women's Political Caucus

*1630 Connecticut Avenue NW, #201, Washington, DC 20009, (202) 785-1100, fax (202) 785-3605,
www.nwpc.org*

A multi-partisan national grassroots membership organization dedicated to identifying, recruiting, training, and supporting pro-choice women for elected and appointed office at all levels of government. Provides contact information for all women currently in public office and detailed analysis of elections and women's progress towards realizing a US legislative body truly representative of its population.

Native American Women's Health Education Resource Center

*P.O. Box 572, Lake Andes, SD 57356,
(605) 487-7072, fax (605) 487-7964,
nativewomen@igc.apc.org, www.nativeshop.org*

A project of the Native American Community Board dedicated to addressing issues of Native American women's health through education, counseling, scholarships, and other programs. Publishes the Wicozanni Wowapi Newsletter. Programs include the Domestic Violence Program, AIDS Prevention Program, Environmental Awareness and Action Project, Cancer Prevention, and Fetal Alcohol Syndrome Awareness Program in addition to Reproductive Health and Rights. Publishes reports on a variety of Native American women's health issues.

Northwest Coalition for Human Dignity

*P.O. Box 21428, Seattle, WA 98111,
(206) 233-9136, fax (206) 233-0611*

Coalition of public, private, and governmental organizations that monitors supremacist groups and activities. Explores the overlap between white supremacist, anti-semitic, and anti-choice groups.

Pacific Institute for Women's Health

2999 Overland Avenue, Suite 111 Los Angeles, CA 90064, (310) 842-6828, fax (310)280-0600, piwh@piwh.org, www.piwh.org

Dedicated to improving women's health and well-being locally and globally, the Institute takes a comprehensive approach to the complex realities of women's lives and works through applied research, advocacy, community involvement, consultation and training. They believe that efforts to improve women's health and well-being must go beyond the treatment of disease to address all conditions affecting women's lives; that a diversity of participants, views and opinions is critical to the success of their mission; that collaborative and respectful relationships should infuse all their activities; that findings from their work should be widely shared to influence policies and programs to promote women's health and well-being.

People Against Racist Terror

P.O. Box 1055, Culver City, CA 90232, (310) 495-0299, part2001@usa.net, <http://people.we.mediaone.net/part2001/index.html>

PART opposes anti-Semitism, zionism, clinic bombings, gay bashing, police brutality, political repression, racist terror, racism, sexism, colonialism, and all forms of oppression. PART fights for international solidarity, human liberation, and for the protection of the environment. PART is affiliated with Anti-Racist Action (ARA) and puts out Turning the Tide: Journal of Anti-Racist Action, Research & Education.

People For the American Way

2000 M Street, Suite 400 NW, Washington, DC 20036, (202) 467-4999, fax (202) 293-2672, 1-800-326-7329, pfaw@pfaw.org, www.pfaw.org

People For the American Way Foundation is "committed to defending democracy and bringing the ideals of community, opportunity, diversity, equality and fairness together to form a strong, united voice". To achieve this, PFAWF conducts research, legal and education work, and does community organizing, as well as monitoring and researching the Religious Right movement and its political allies.

Physicians for Reproductive Choice and Health

1780 Broadway, 10th Floor, New York, NY 10019, (212) 765-2322, fax (212) 246-5134, info@aol.com, www.prch.org

Enables concerned physicians to take a more active and visible role in support of universal reproductive health care. Dedicated to ensuring that all people have the knowledge, equal access to quality services, and freedom of choice to make their own reproductive health care decisions. Publishes a quarterly newsletter.

Planned Parenthood Federation of America

810 7th Avenue, 14th Floor, New York, NY 10019, (212) 541-7800, fax (212) 245-1845

1120 Connecticut Avenue, NW, Suite 461, Washington, DC 20036, (202) 785-3351, (202) 293-4349, communications@ppfa.org, www.plannedparenthood.org

Provides comprehensive reproductive and complementary health care services in settings which preserve and protect the essential privacy and rights of each individual. Advocates public policies which guarantee these rights and ensure access to such services. PPFA also provides educational programs which enhance understanding of individual and societal implications of human sexuality, and promotes research and the advancement of technology in reproductive health care and encourages understanding of their inherent bioethical, behavioral, and social implications.

Planned Parenthood Federation of Canada

1 Nicholas Street, Suite 430, Ottawa, ON K1N 7B7, (613) 241-4474, admin@ppfc.ca, www.ppfc.ca

The only national, non-governmental, volunteer organization in Canada whose principal concerns are sexual and reproductive health and rights. It is a member of the International Planned Parenthood Federation. Its mission is to promote healthy sexuality throughout the human life cycle, and to support birth planning by assuring adequate education and services for all Canadians. PPFC believes that the quality of life will be improved when every pregnancy is a wanted pregnancy.

Political Ecology Group

965 Mission Street, Suite 218, San Francisco, CA 94103, (415) 777-3488, peg@p-e-g.org, www.igc.org/peg

A grassroots, multi-racial and multi-issue organization working for environmental justice locally, nationally, and internationally. PEG's campaigns build alliances to confront racism, corporate power, and environmental destruction. PEG brings people together for participatory education, leadership development, to reframe public debate and to take collective action. Sponsors the Immigration and the Environment Campaign, Exposing the Greening of Hate and Myths, and Facts about Population and the Environment.

Pro-Choice Action Network

512-1755 Robson St., Vancouver, BC, Canada, V6G 3B7, (604) 736-2800, fax (604) 736-2869, pcan@vcn.bc.ca, www.prochoiceconnection.com/pro-can/

Pro-Choice Action Network is a political and advocacy group that lobbies for women's rights to choice in abortion. Publishes the quarterly newsletter Pro-Choice Press.

Pro-Choice League, Bill Baird

P.O. Box 324, Huntington, NY 11743, (516) 673-6871, BBaird322@aol.com, www.prochoicleague.org

Works to educate the public about reproductive freedoms and threats to those freedoms. Pro-Choice League also provides referrals for counseling to pregnant women, and parenting classes.

Pro-Choice Public Education Project

16 Willett Avenue, Port Chester, NY 10573, (888) 253-2464, pep@protectchoice.org, www.protectchoice.org

Publishes reports on the public's perception of reproductive choice and develops pro-choice advertising campaigns.

ProChoice Resource Center

16 Willett Avenue, Port Chester, NY 10573-4326, (914) 690-0938, (800) 733-1973, fax (914) 690-0958, info@prochoiceresource.org, www.prochoiceresource.org

Helps educate, energize, and mobilize pro-choice, pro-freedom supporters as a way to counter extremist attacks and promote reproductive freedom. Provides trainings, coalition-building programs, and publications by the Center and other progressive organizations. Publishes ProChoice IDEA, a newsletter, as well as other resources. Administers the Pro-Choice Public Education Project.

Project Tocsin

6521 Capital Circle, Sacramento, CA 95828-1208, (916) 381-3115, projtoocsin@juno.com, www.rthoughtsrfree.org/tocsin/tocsin.htm

Project Tocsin (PT) is a research organization that monitors the activities of the religious political Right in California. Among other accomplishments, PT has produced an extensive chart called "California Theocratic Right Wing," mapping the players and funders of California's religious Right wing. Based in Sacramento County, PT acts as a resource for California and the national media, working to expose the political movement of the religious Right.

Refuse & Resist!, National Office

305 Madison Avenue, Suite 1166, New York, NY 10165, (212) 713-5657, resist@walrus.com, <http://mojo.calyx.net/~refuse>

R&R! builds and encourages many forces of resistance to the Right-wing agenda by speaking out in schools, communities and in the media; organizing forums and meetings; demonstrating in the streets; creating and performing cultural works; and contributing financially.

Religious Coalition for Reproductive Choice

1025 Vermont Avenue, NW, Suite 1130, Washington, DC 20002, (202) 628-7700, fax (202) 628-7716, info@rcrc.org, www.rcrc.org

A coalition of forty-three national Christian, Jewish, and other religious organizations that support a woman's right to choose. Ensures reproductive choice through the moral power of religious communities; conducts public education campaigns; has 22 state and local affiliates; has a nation-wide Clergy For Choice Network; and launched a groundbreaking Black Church Initiative to address teenage pregnancy and other reproductive health issues in the African-American religious community.

Reproductive Health Technologies Project

1818 N Street NW, Suite 450, Washington, DC 20036, rhtp@basshowes.com, www.rhtp.org

Founded in 1988 as a working group to provide public education and build public understanding about the RU 486 and other antiprogestins, the Project expanded its scope and was established as an independent 501(c)3 in 1992. It has become an important forum for dialogue and consensus-building among constituencies often at odds in their viewpoints on women's reproductive health matters, especially issues regarding the historical use or misuse of technologies. The Project focuses on issues where science, technology, politics, and the interests of women converge and often clash. The Project's 25-member board, with its diverse representation, is a powerful vehicle for public education, advocacy and policy development.

Project also holds HIV/AIDS educational workshops for prisoners and communities as well as publishing a newsletter and hosting other publications.

Voters for Choice

1010 Wisconsin Avenue, NW, Suite 410, Washington, DC 20007, (202) 944-5080, fax (202) 944-5081, vfc@attglobal.net, www.voters4choice.org

The largest independent, non-partisan, pro-choice political action committee in the United States, Voters for Choice supports candidates with training, voter identification services, get-out-the-vote services, financial assistance and endorsements. Founded in 1979 by Gloria Steinem and Planned Parenthood board members, this organization regularly updates its pro-choice candidate handbook, Winning with Choice: the 2000 Guide to Winning Elections with a Pro-Choice Message.

Women of Color Partnership Program

c/o Religious Coalition for Reproductive Choice (see above for contact information)

Seeks to identify and address reproductive health care concerns from the unique perspectives of women of color. Works to ensure the participation of women of color in the pro-choice movement by fostering, supporting and promoting the unique voices and perspectives of women of color from religious and secular organizations.

Women's Project

2224 Main Street, Little Rock, AR 72206, (501) 372-5113 (also TDD), fax (501) 372-0009, wproject@aol.com, www.womens-project.org

A community-based, non-profit organization that works to stop racism and sexism. The Women's Project educates the public through a variety of projects that it sponsors. Some of these include the Women's Watchcare Network which documents violence against women by right-wing groups or individuals; the Neighbor to Neighbor community alliance; the Arkansas Progressive Network; the Social Justice Project; the Health Project; the African-American Women's Institute; the Arkansas Equality Network; and PALS Gay-Straight Alliance. The Women's

Selected List of National Organizations Opposing Reproductive Rights

Advocates for Life Ministries

6304 NE Sandy Boulevard, Portland, OR 97213,
(503) 288-5423

Publisher of Life Advocate magazine, which supported the killing of abortion providers.

Alliance Defense Fund

7819 East Greenway Road, Suite 8, Scottsdale, AZ
85260, (800) TELL-ADF

Founded in 1994 by the leaders of Focus on the Family, the American Family Association, Coral Ridge Ministries and Campus Crusade for Christ, this grant-making organization provides financial and technical assistance to Christian lawyers and groups, including pro-life organizations.

American Coalition of Life Activists

P.O. Box 9869, Norfolk, VA 23505, (757) 587-8678

Formed in 1994 following disputes about the use of violence. ACLA membership is composed of those organizational leaders supporting assassination of physicians and clinic personnel. Home of Justice for Children. David Crane, Executive Director. Several regional affiliates, like the Christian Pro-Life Action Network (CPLAN) of Springfield, MA support the work of anti-abortion activists such as its Director, Rev. Bruce Evan Murch. Murch, who has been arrested 60 times, publishes Salt & Light magazine, which gives news regarding people arrested and jailed for antiabortion activities. Murch was also associated with the Nuremberg Files suit.

American Association of Pro-Life Obstetricians and Gynecologists

P.O. Box 757, N27 W23957 Paul Road, Suite 202, Pewaukee, WI 53072, (414) 523-6208

National group of pro-life OB/GYNs. Offers a referral service for pro-life providers. Claims its members represent six percent of members of the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists.

American Center for Law and Justice

1000 Regent University Drive, Virginia Beach, VA
23467, (757) 226-2489, www.aclj.org

Legal action in support of Christian principles. Founded by Pat Robertson in 1990 as a "public interest law firm dedicated to the promotion of pro-liberty, pro-life and pro-family causes." Provides legal support for clinic demonstrations and protesters. Jay Sekulow is Chief Counsel.

American Family Association

P.O. Drawer 2440, Tupelo, MS 38803,
(601) 844-5036, www.afa.net

Donald Wildmon's media and entertainment watchdog group. Also provides legal assistance through its law center for pro-life court cases. Operates more than 100 radio stations.

American Life League

1179 Courthouse Road, P.O. Box 1350, Stafford, VA
22554, (888) 546-2580, www.all.org

ALL is "dedicated to the protection of every human life from fertilization to death—with no exceptions." Founder and President Judie Brown issues statements on a range of issues from abortion, assisted suicide, cloning, euthanasia, population control, and fetal tissue research, which she calls "recycling babies." Publishes Celebrate Life and Communique magazines. Affiliated with Rock for Life (R4L) and its brand of concerts, CDs, and apparel.

Americans United for Life

310 South Peoria Street Suite 300 Chicago, IL
60607, (312) 492-7234, www.unitedforlife.org

Creates model pro-life legislation and offers pro-bono legal assistance to lawyers arguing pro-life criminal and civil cases, both at the state and federal levels. Committed to chipping away at Roe piece by piece.

Arthur S. DeMoss Foundation

P.O. Box 700, Valley Forge, PA 19842-0700

Funder of 1992 pro-life television spots, "Life: What a Beautiful Choice," estimated to cost $20 million.

Birthright USA

P.O. Box 998363, Atlanta, GA 30359,
(800) 550-4900, www.birthright.org

Network of 500 pro-life crisis pregnancy centers throughout the US. Affiliated with Birthright International which coordinates centers worldwide from Toronto.

Campaign for Working Families

499 South Capitol St., SW, Suite 410, Washington, DC 20003, (202) 479-9696, www.cwfpac.com

A pro-family and pro-life PAC which supports an end to abortion and lower taxes for families.

Catholic Alliance

1801-L Sara Drive, Chesapeake VA 23320, (757) 424-2630, www.cc.org

Created by the Christian Coalition in 1995 to bring Catholic laity and evangelical Protestants together around a range of issues, including abortion.

The Catholic Health Association of America

4455 Woodson Road, St. Louis, MO 63134-3797, (314)-427-2500, www.chausa.org

A 2,000 member lobbying and advocacy organization for Catholic health care facilities, including hospitals. Supports the retention of Catholic conscience clauses in hospital mergers of Catholic and other-than-Catholic facilities.

Catholics United for Life

3050 Gap Knob Road, New Hope, KY 40052, (502) 549-3680, www.mich.com/~buffalo/

Besides a colorful graphic presence on the Web with links to many Catholic, pro-life sites, this group trains “sidewalk counselors” to demonstrate outside abortion clinics. Its legal arm is the New Hope Life Center in Kentucky. Hosts Free Speech Advocates, one of its affiliates, that offers legal defense for anti-abortion militants.

Center for Bioethics and Human Dignity

2065 Half Day Road, Bannockburn, IL 60015, (800) 417-9999, www.bioethix.org

Founded by Christian bioethicists in 1994 to bring Christian perspectives to contemporary bioethical issues such as stem cell research and fetal surgery. Affiliated with many pro-life medical organizations. Publishes Ethics and Medicine.

Christian Action Council

109 Carpenter Drive, Suite 100, Sterling, VA 20164, (703) 478-5661

Coordinates a network of 450 crisis pregnancy centers through its ministries arm, Care Net. Publishes the Pro-Life Advocate.

Christian Activist Network

P.O. Box 606, Forest, VA 24511-0606, (800) 835-5795

Pro-life group that promotes several issues through its home lobbying kits as well as books such as founder Martin Mawyer’s Defending the American Family: the Pro-Family Contract with America.

Christian Coalition of America

P.O. Box 1990, 1801-L Sara Drive, Chesapeake, VA, (800) 325-4746, www.cc.org

Founded by Pat Robertson in 1989 and headed by Ralph Reed through most of the 90s, this blockbuster organization uses the resources of more than one million members to influence public policy and elections around many issues, including abortion.

Christian Defense Coalition

1006 Princess Anne St., Fredericksburg, VA 22401, (540) 373-8099

Headed by Reverend Patrick J. Mahoney, this religiously-based pro-life group is active in clinic blockades and political protests. Has been involved in numerous law suits around protest activity.

Collegians Activated To Liberate Life

P.O. Box 259806, Madison, WI 53725, (608) 256-CALL, Callnet@aol.com, www.veraprise.com/call/

A Christian organization founded in 1991 by Peter Alban Heers to foster young anti-choice leadership through CALL weekend events (conferences of speeches and activism), outreach to campuses, networking college students to national leaders, and the publication of a newsletter, Trumpet. Against sex before marriage, contraception, euthanasia, and in vitro fertilization.

Concerned Women for America

1015 Fifteenth St., NW Suite 1100, Washington, DC 20005, (202) 488-0806, www.cwfa.org

Under the leadership of its founder and president Beverly LaHaye, CWA is the largest conservative women’s political organization in the US and has teamed up with the Christian Medical and Dental Society to produce a series of public service announcements about the dangers of abortion. Past campaigns include “After the Choice,” a video about crisis pregnancies that attacks the Sexuality Information and Education Council of the United States (SIECUS).

Coral Ridge Ministries

P.O. Box 1940, Ft. Lauderdale, FL 33302-1940, (754) 772-0404, (877) SALT USA (725-8872)
www.coralridge.org

Home of James Kennedy's Coral Ridge Media companies, Janet Folger's Center for Reclaiming America, and affiliated with its Washington lobbying arm, The Center for Christian Statesmanship. Daily radio and TV shows nationwide. Its monthly newsletter Impact regularly asks readers to take anti-choice action.

Defenders of Life

P.O. Box 320, Drexel Hill, PA 19026

Publishes The Rescuer, a bimonthly newsletter follows the strategy and philosophy of the American "rescue movement."

Eagle Forum

P.O. Box 618 Alton, IL 62002, (618) 462-5415, www.eagleforum.org

Phyllis Schlafly's operations center for publications and mailings is in Illinois; her lobbying arm is in Washington. Mostly a copycat on conservative abortion issues, this organization will gladly reprint information about pro-life activities and positions.

Elliot Institute

PO Box 7348, Springfield, IL 62791-7348, www.prolife.org/afterabortion/index.html

The Elliot Institute is a non-profit corporation that was founded in 1988 to perform research and publish material on the impact of abortion and serves as "an advocate for women and men seeking post-abortion healing." The director, David C. Reardon, Ph.D., is the editor of The Post-Abortion Review. He is also the author of Aborted Women, Silent No More; Making Abortion Rare; and a resource for clergy called The Jericho Plan: Breaking Down the Walls Which Prevent Post-Abortion Healing.

Family Research Council

801 G St., NW, Washington, DC 20001,
(800) 225-4008, www.frc.org

This is the DC-based public policy affiliate of James Dobson's Focus on the Family. Among its many magazines, such as Family Policy and other materials, the FRC publishes the Pro-Life Action Guide and The Truth in Black and White, a booklet about so-called "partial-birth abortion."

Feminists for Life of America

733 15th St., NW, Suite 1100, Washington, DC 20005, (202) 737-FFLA, www.feministsforlife.org

Calling on Susan B. Anthony as its role model, this group opposes all forms of violence, especially against women, and is particularly opposed to abortion. Publishes the quarterly The American Feminist which reprints articles on such topics as the link between abortion and breast cancer. Identifies proudly as pro-feminist and pro-life.

Focus on the Family

8605 Explorer Drive, Colorado Springs, CO 80920,
(800) A-FAMILY, www.family.org

James Dobson's pro-family outfit is a prodigious publisher and broadcaster, printing over 10 magazines every month for specific constituencies, such as physicians, children, young women, teachers, and single parents. Dobson maintains his syndicated daily radio show on Christian issues. Maintains state-level affiliates.

Hayes Publishing Company

6304 Hamilton Ave., Cincinnati, OH 45224,
(513) 681-7559, fax (513) 681-9298,
hayespub@aol.com

Publishes a variety of anti-choice materials, including, books by Dr. and Mrs. J.C. Willke (Abortion Questions and Answers (1990), Assisted Suicide and Euthanasia: Past & Present (1998), Why Can't We Love Them Both?(1997)), photographs of abortions and a brochure called, Planned Parenthood, The Nation's Leading Provider and Promoter of Abortion: Is it True?

Heartbeat International

7870 Olentangy River Road, Suite 304, Columbus, OH 43235, (888) 550-7577, www.heartbeatinternational.org

Support association of pro-life crisis pregnancy centers. Publishes annual directory of pro-life pregnancy centers, runs workshops and seminars, and sells a line of sex abstinence jewelry and a software program for managing such centers.

Heritage House '76

919 South Main Street, Snowflake, AZ 85937,
(520) 536-7705, fax (520)536-7785, heritage@cybertrails.com, www.heritagehouse76.com/

An anti-choice catalog of books, curricula, videos, bumper stickers, jewelry and other resources.

Human Life International

4 Family Life Lane, Front Royal, VA 22630,
(540) 635-7884, www.hli.org

HLI's mission is to "promote and defend the sanctity of human life around the world according to the teachings of the Roman Catholic Church through prayer, service and education." Founded by Father Paul Marx, this international organization supports local affiliates of priests and laypeople who are encouraged to become active opponents of abortion, euthanasia, contraception, and homosexuality. Vida Humana Internacional Sucursal en Miami is a branch of Human Life International that targets Latinos.

Libertarians for Life

13424 Hathaway Drive, Wheaton, MD 20906,
(301) 460-4141, www.L4L.org

"Libertarians for Life was founded in 1976 to show why abortion is a wrong under justice, not a right. Our reasoning is scientific and philosophical rather than pragmatic or religious." Offers a speakers bureau and publications list.

Life Decisions International

P.O. Box 75161, Washington, DC 20013-5161, (202) 347-2066, Fax 703-222-4346, ldi-hq@usa.net,
www.lifedecisionsint.org/default.asp

Publications available on the web.

Life Dynamics, Inc.

P.O. Box 2226, Denton, TX 75067,
(940) 380-8800, www.lifedynamics.org

Mark Crutcher's multi-tactic approach to abolishing abortions includes training on his Firestorm campaign, "Life Activist Seminars;" how to enact abortion malpractice ("ABMAL") litigation; direct mail attacks on abortion providers and medical students; and a video talk show, "Lifetalk," that claims to have exposed the industry of abortion clinics selling fetal body parts.

Life Education and Resource Network-- L.E.A.R.N.

P.O. Box 87641, Houston, TX 77286, (713) 645-1377, help@learninc.org,
www.learninc.org

LEARN is the largest, African-American, evangelical pro-life ministry in the United States. Promotes chastity, values, and pro-life education for African Americans. Holds an annual conference and produces materials including videos and TV shows. Rev. Johnny Hunter is President and Akua Furlow executive director.

Life Enterprises Unlimited

P.O. Box 85030, Mobile, AL 36685
www.trosch.org

Organized by David Trosch, a Catholic priest who, following the murder of David Gunn was the first to declare publicly that killing abortion providers is "justifiable homicide."

Life Issues Institute, Inc

1721 W. Galbraith Rd., Cincinnati, OH 45239,
(513) 729-3600, fax (513) 729-3636,
lifeissues@aol.com, www.lifeissues.org

Anti-choice organization, headed by John C. Willke, MD, that produces educational material, including: brochures; books; videos; slide sets; CDs containing sixty-second spots on abortion; a daily five-minute commentary on abortion and related issues (Life Issues hosted by John Willke); The RU-486 Report, a monthly publication; and Connector, a quarterly publication. Their materials are translated into over 28 languages.

Life Legal Defense Foundation

P.O. Box 2105, Napa, CA 94558, (707) 224-6675

Originally formed to defend Operation Rescue members in California, this small, pro-life, legal defense group publishes a newsletter, Lifeline.

March for Life

PO Box 90300, Washington, DC 20090,
(202) 543-3377, info@marchforlife.org,
www.marchforlife.org

Founded in 1974 by anti-choice leaders. Organizes an annual Washington, D.C. march that takes place on the anniversary of Roe v. Wade (January 22nd).

Mothers Against Minors' Abortion (MAMA)

P.O. Box 7344, Fredericksburg, VA 22401, (540) 371-0292, esther@tellmama.org, www.tellmama.org

Eileen Roberts founded MAMA in 1987 after she was notified that surgery was needed to repair damage to her then 14-year old daughter after she had had an abortion. "MAMA is dedicated to educating the public and state legislatures to the critical need for public policy that protects minors and respects the right of parents to be involved if an abortion is being sought for their minor-aged daughter."

Missionaries to the Preborn

P.O. Box 25204, Milwaukee, WI 53225,
(414) 462-3399, www.missionariestopreborn.com

“Missionaries to the Preborn is the first Christian mission in America dedicated to the ministry of our preborn neighbor.” Founded by Rev. Matt Trehwella, this militant group is split from mainstream pro-life groups, since it believes in the absolute prohibition of abortion, at any cost. See Correction at: <http://www.publiceye.org/Updates/Corrections.html>

National Coalition for Life and Peace

right2life@aol.com, www.prolife.org/nclp

On-line, pro-life critic of clinic violence.

National Committee for a Human Life Amendment

1511 K Street, NW, Washington, DC 20005,
(202) 393-0703, fax (202) 347-1383

Lobbies to re-criminalize abortion through a Human Life Amendment and against any funding of abortion. Works primarily in the Catholic community.

National Conference of Catholic Bishops Secretariat for Pro-Life Activities

3211 4th St., NE, Washington, DC 20017,
(202) 541-3070, www.nccbuscc.org/prolifelissues

The official policy and church teachings arm of the US Catholic Conference on matters of abortion. The Secretariat works under the direction and guidance of a Committee of bishops, presently chaired by William Cardinal Keeler of Baltimore, conducting anti-abortion and anti-euthanasia educational and public policy work. Also publishes liturgical suggestions, three newsletters (Life Insight, Life At Risk: A Chronicle of Euthanasia Trends in America, and NFP Forum), and a biweekly syndicated column for Catholic newspapers (“Life Issues Forum”).

National Office of Post-Abortion Reconciliation and Healing

3501 South Lake Drive, P.O. Box 07477,
Milwaukee, WI 53207, (800) 593-2273
noparb@juno.com, www.marquette.edu/rachel

Provides information and training for anti-abortion counseling centers on “post-abortion trauma” and assists with the development of local trauma-counseling programs titled “Project Rachel.” Project Rachel is the post-abortion healing ministry of the Catholic Church.

National Right to Life Committee

419 7th Street, NW, Suite 500, Washington, DC 20004, (202) 626-8800, www.nrlc.org

This large group is perhaps the best known of all the national pro-life organizations. Spawned in the early 1970s by the National Conference of Catholic Bishops, it remains predominantly Catholic but does have a significant proportion of Protestant members. Focusing on mainstream pro-life legislative goals, NRLC has given a lot of attention to late-term abortion, the Child Custody Protection Act (making it illegal to transport a minor across state lines for an abortion) and identifying presidential candidates’ positions on abortion. NRLC also files amicus briefs on major abortion cases. In an effort to appear more responsive to real people, it has developed special population programs for adolescents (National Teens for Life); “victims of post-abortion syndrome” (American Victims of Violence); National College Students for Life; and Black Americans for Life.

National Women’s Coalition for Life

P.O. Box 1553, Oak Park, IL 60304,
(708) 848-5351 P.O. Box 4029, Alexandria, VA 22303, (703) 960-4519

Membership organization for several women’s pro-life groups, including American Victims of Abortion, Professional Women’s Network, and Feminists for Life.

Negative Population Growth, Inc.

1717 Massachusetts Avenue, NW, Suite 101,
Washington, DC 20036, (202) 667-8950,
fax (202) 667-8953, npg@npg.org, www.npg.org

Membership organization founded in 1972 to focus on the effects of overpopulation on the environment and quality of life. Seeks to decrease the population of the US through limits on immigration and voluntary incentives for smaller families. Has argued that monetary incentives to encourage women to get sterilized are not coercive.

New Hope Life Center, ACLJ New Hope

New Hope KY 40052, (502) 549-5454, www.members.aol.com/newhopelc

Formerly, Free Speech Advocates. The legal arm of Catholics United for Life, this group was started by Catholic converts to provide legal support to sidewalk counselors. Best known for publishing its polemical magazine, Culture Wars.

Operation Rescue/ Operation Save America

P.O. Box 740066, Dallas, TX 75374,
(972) 494-5316, www.operationsaveamerica.org

Founded by Randall Terry in 1986. Its abortion clinic blockades peaked in 1988-89 and have steadily declined since. Court suits and high fines have had a tempering effect on its activities and membership. Flip Benham has replaced Terry, and under his leadership, OR continues to employ Biblical principles to the abortion debate.

Pharmacists for Life International

P.O. Box 1281, Powell, OH, 43065-1281, (800) 227-8359, (740) 881-5520, fax (707) 667-2447, pfli@pfli.org,
www.pfli.org/index.html

Anti-choice pharmacist association representing almost 1500 pharmacists, and hundreds of lay supporters worldwide. Advocates the adoption of a Pharmacist's Conscience Clause (which have passed in Louisiana, Puerto Rico and California) giving pharmacists the right to refuse to perform professionally related acts based on a claim of conscience without risking loss of employment or a suite for damages. Its activities include education of pharmacists, health care professionals and the general public through consultations, speakers and quarterly newsletter called Beginnings.

The Population Research Institute

P.O. Box 1559, Front Royal, VA 22630,
(540) 622-5240, www.pop.org

This small office supports pro-life ideas that challenge the idea of a global population problem. It argues against US funding of international family planning programs, and it opposes the use of Norplant in the Third World. Publishes PRI Review.

Prayer and Action Weekly News

137 E. Leach Avenue, Des Moines, IA 50315, www.panews.org

Published since 1989 by The Partnership Machine (PM) which also sponsors The Uncle Ed Show. David Leach is the PM president and publisher. He is a signatory to the Defensive Action Statement endorsing the concept of justifiable homicide of abortion providers. They offer access to copies of the Army of God Manual.

Priests for Life

PO Box 141172, Staten Island, NY 10314, 888-PFL-3448, (718) 980-400, fax (718) 980-6515,
pfl@priestsforlife.org, www.priestsforlife.org

Founded in 1991 to network and assist priests in anti-abortion and anti-euthanasia work through training seminars, publications (including the Priests for Life newsletter and an aid for anti-abortion preaching), videos and tapes, and by linking clergy to other anti-abortion groups. Also, offers "healing and counseling" to women who have had abortions. Father Pavone, the director, has bi-weekly columns in diocesan newspapers.

Project Rachel

St. John's Center, 3680 Kinnickinnic Avenue,
Milwaukee, WI 53207, (414) 483-4141,
(800) 5WE-CARE, www.mu.edu/rachel/post.html

See National Office of Post-Abortion Reconciliation and Healing.

Pro-Life Action League

6160 North Cicero Avenue, Suite 600, Chicago, IL
60646, (312) 777-2900, Newsline (312) 777-2525, www.prolifeaction.org

Founder Joseph Scheidler has single-handedly upped the ante in pro-life direct action circles. His Closed: 99 Ways to Stop Abortion is the recipe book for sidewalk counseling and other militant action. His website provides materials for student papers and ways to support his lawsuit against NOW. From Closed: "Pro-life activists cannot wait for the legislative and judicial process that will make abortion illegal. The activist has to save lives now."

Pro-Life Action Report Network (PARnet)

P.O. Box 10171, Lancaster, PA 17605,
(717) 295-5370

Computer bulletin board system and newsletter connects pro-life groups with each other.

Pro-Life Alliance of Gays and Lesbians

P.O. Box 33292, Washington, DC 20033,
(202) 223-6697, fax (202) 265-9737, www.plagal.org

"The Pro-Life Alliance of Gays and Lesbians began in 1990 with local groups in Washington, DC and Minneapolis. Today PLAGAL strives to promote a respect for life within the gay community and encourage gay and lesbian participation in the pro-life cause." Annually seeks to be allowed to participate in the March for Life.

Randall Terry Live!

www.randallterry.com/

Radio show of Randall Terry, founder of Operation Rescue, which can be heard on stations around the country and on the internet (at www.wrkp.com).

Republican National Coalition for Life

Box 618, Alton, IL 62002, (618) 462-5415, www.rnclife.org

Phyllis Schafly founded this group in 1990 to highlight the support the Republican Party gives to pro-life issues. RNCL is the source of the GOP and Elephant/Precious Feet pins as well as such bumper stickers as “It’s a child, not a choice.”

Rescue America

2000 NE 51st Place, Ocala, FL 33479 or P.O. Box 440970-220, Houston, TX 77244, (713) 492-8396

One of the most militant anti-abortion organizations. Rescue America supported Michael Griffith when he shot Dr. David Gunn and a RA member, Daniel Ware, was arrested for having a cache of weapons after vowing to terminate abortion providers gathered at a memorial service for Dr. Gunn. Has worked closely with Operation Rescue and employs similar tactics of blockading clinics. See www.mttu.com/RescueAmerica.

Rock for Life

P.O. Box 1350, Stafford, VA 22555, (540) 659-4171, www.rockforlife.org

A youth division of the American Life League led by Brian Kemper. Sponsors pro-life rock concerts as part of a recruitment effort to attract high school and college-age audiences.

Rutherford Institute

1445 East Rio Rd., P.O. Box 7482, Charlottesville, VA 22906, (804) 978-3888, www.rutherford.org

Founded by R.J. Rushdoony, John and Carol Whitehead and other Christian Reconstructionists. Rutherford is a legal support organization which works to codify its leaders’ beliefs into law. It has represented Operation Rescue, Missionaries to the Preborn, and national and local action-oriented pro-life groups whose members get arrested. A radio spot, Freedom Under Fire, airs on most Christian networks daily.

Seamless Garment Network

109 Pickwick Drive, Rochester, NY 14618, www.seamless-garment.org

Network of progressive, faith-based groups committed to “a consistent ethic of life.” Opposes violence of any sort, including the arms race, warfare, poverty, capital punishment, and euthanasia as well as abortion which it sees as a form of violence. Founded the Institute for Integrated Social Analysis.

STOPP—Stop Planned Parenthood International

P.O. Box 1350, Stafford, VA 22555, (540) 659-4171, fax (540) 659-2586, jsedlak@all.org, www.all.org/stopp/index.htm

STOPP is a Christian organization, founded in 1985, with the goal of closing down all Planned Parenthood programs, especially abortion services and any youth education programs. It calls itself an organization of parents and endorses “all nonviolent activity,” including providing speakers, producing publications (including the newsletter, Ryan Report), and legislative work. The Director is Jim Sedlak.

Susan B. Anthony List

1800 Diagonal Road, Alexandria, VA 22314, (703) 638-5558, www.sba-list.org

Political action committee designed to train, support and elect women pro-life candidates at all levels of US government. Shares the use of Susan B. Anthony as an organizational icon of pro-life feminists with Feminists for Life although unaffiliated with that group.

Western Center for Law and Religious Freedom

317 Court Street NE, Salem, OR 97301, (503) 581-2260, www.clsnet.com

Originally a project of the Christian Legal Society, the Center maintains its affiliation as it attempts to defend members of groups like Operation Rescue who were sued by the abortion providers for blockading clinics.

Reproductive Rights Bibliography

(Primary Sources)

Books

Andrusko, Dave, ed. To Rescue the Future: the Pro-Life Movement in the 1980's. Harrison, NY: Life Cycle Books, 1987.

A review of the achievements of the "pro-life" movement in the decade of the '80s from the editor of similar annual reviews.

Beckwith, Francis J. Politically Correct Death: Answering the Arguments for Abortion Rights. Grand Rapids, MI: Baker Books, 1993.

A conservative's collection of debate responses to pro-choice arguments.

Bohan, James F. The House of Atreus: Abortion as a Human Rights Issue. Westport, CT: Praeger, 1999.

An attempt to present the conflicting claims of women, fetuses and society.

Brennan, William. The Abortion Holocaust: Today's Final Solution. St. Louis, MO: Landmark Press, 1983.

A comparison between the Third Reich and "Roe v. Wade America," arguing that abortion is a modern resurrection of "one of history's most monstrous chapters."

Crutcher, Mark. Access: The Key to Pro-life Victory. Denton, TX: Life Dynamics Publications, n.d.

A Life Dynamics, Inc. pamphlet that suggests that limited access to abortion services will be the single most effective way to end abortion in the US.

_____. Lime 5: Exploited by Choice. Denton, TX: Life Dynamics Publications, 1996.

A "behind-the-scenes" look at abortion providers and the women they serve from one of the most vocal, hard-Right, anti-choice activists.

_____. Quack the Ripper: News from the Red Light District of Medicine. Denton, TX: Life Dynamics Publications, n.d.

This is the latest format of a cartoon book that is part of a direct mail campaign to medical students that vilifies abortion providers and pro-choice activists.

Gilder, George F. Sexual Suicide. New York, NY: Bantam, 1975.

The author explains traditional family and sex role differences among men and women as a necessary balance between aggressive "maleness" and the civilizing force of "femaleness."

Grant, George. Immaculate Deception. Chicago, IL: Northfield Publishing, 1996.

This indictment of Planned Parenthood focuses on the author's claim that the organization's broad impact on health care, legal services, abortion and contraceptive services is vulnerable and declining.

McCorvey, Norma with Gary Thomas. Won by Love. Nashville, TN: Thomas Nelson, 1997.

The second book by the Jane Roe of Roe v. Wade, describing her born-again process at the hands of Operation Rescue leader Flip Benham.

Nathanson, Barnard N. with Richard N. Ostling. Aborting America: A Case Against Abortion. New York, NY: Pinnacle Books, 1979.

The autobiography of a former abortion provider turned anti-choice spokesperson.

O'Leary, Dale. The Gender Agenda: Redefining Equality. Lafayette, LA: Vital Issues Press, 1997.

A conservative journalist's analysis of the hidden agenda of feminism as an attempt to ruin traditional sex roles by creating absolute equity between men and women.

Powell, John, S.J. Abortion: The Silent Holocaust. Allen, TX: Argis Communications, 1981.

Half autobiography, half Catholic version of Whatever Happened to the Human Race (see Schaeffer entry below), this back-pocket-sized book follows a pro-life spokesman through his spiritual and political development.

Rae, Scott B. Brave New Technologies: Biblical Ethics and Reproductive Technologies. Grand Rapids, MI: Baker Book House, 1996.

An investigation of the moral issues involved in several reproductive technologies from a Christian ethicist who struggled as a member of an infertile couple himself. Includes advice for other couples in similar situations.

Ruff, Robert H. Aborting Planned Parenthood: Documented Proof of Planned Parenthood's Systematic Exploitation of Teenagers and Taxpayers. Lewiston, NY: Life Cycle Books, 1988.

Ruff's criticism of Planned Parenthood addresses such topics as "the tragedy of 'safe sex'," "the failure of sex education," and "the scandal of government funding."

Schaeffer, Francis A. and C. Everett Koop, MD Whatever Happened to the Human Race? Old Tappan, NJ: Fleming H. Revell Co., 1979.

The source for much of the anti-choice strategists' thinking. Schaeffer the "prophet" who led Protestants into active opposition to abortion. Surgeon General Koop's early anti-choice roots.

Scheidler, Joseph M. Closed: 99 Ways to Stop Abortion. Westchester, IL: Crossway Books, 1985.

The classic text on how to harass and close down abortion clinics by the father of anti-choice direct action.

Terry, Randall A. Accessory to Murder: The Enemies, Allies, and Accomplices to the Death of our Culture. Brentwood, TN: Wolgemuth and Hyatt Publishers, 1991.

A diatribe not only against Planned Parenthood, NOW and other "hard core feminists" but against those parts of the Christian Right that do not agree with Terry's tactics.

_____. Why Does a Nice Guy Like Me...Keep Getting Thrown in Jail? Lafayette, LA: Huntington House Publishers, 1993.

A further development of Terry's theology from his 1991 book, clarifying why he disagrees with other Christians over his Operation Rescue activities.

Reagan, Ronald. Abortion and the Conscience of the Nation. New York: Thomas Nelson Publishers, 1984. Afterwords by C. Everett Koop and Malcolm Muggeridge.

White House staffers produced this slim volume on behalf of Reagan as a demonstration of his commitment to the pro-life cause.

Articles

Family Policy. A magazine published by the Family Research Council. The September-October, 1999 issue is devoted to the issue of abortion.

Reproductive Rights Bibliography

(Secondary Sources)

Articles

- Alvare, Helen, Marie C. Wilson and Naomi Wolf. "Abortion: Whose Values? Whose Rights?" A panel discussion on abortion. Tikkun, vol. 21, (January 11, 1997), p. 54.
- Barabak, Mark Z. "Some in GOP Suggest Softer Stand on Abortion—For Sake of Victory." Los Angeles Times (March 27, 1999), p. A5.
- Brodie, Ian. "Christian Right Tries the Gentle Touch." The Times (September 19, 1994).
- Carney, Eliza Newlin. "Abortion as a Wedge Issue." The National Journal, vol. 27, no. 9 (March 4, 1995), p. 575.
- Carney, Eliza Newlin. "Abortion Foes Fight the 'Speech Police.'" The National Journal, vol. 29, no. 47, p. 2783.
- Clarkson, Fred. "Anti-abortion Extremists, 'Patriots' and Racists Converge." Intelligence Report, Issue 91 (Summer 1998) pp. 8-16.
- Cook, P.J., A.M. Parnell, M.J. Moore and D. Pagnini. "The effects of short-term variation in abortion funding on pregnancy outcomes." The Journal of Health Economics, Vol. 18, no. 2 (April, 1999), pp. 241-257.
- Dart, Bob. "Roe v. Wade: 25 Years Later." The Atlanta Journal and Constitution (Sunday, January 18, 1998), p. 2E.
- English, Deirdre. "The War Against Choice: Inside the Antiabortion Movement." Mother Jones (Feb.-Mar. 1981), pp. 16-32.
- Fishman, Ted C. "Wrongful Death: a New Strategy in the War Against Abortion." Playboy, vol. 44, no. 7, p. 50.
- Fried, Marlene Gerber. "Abortion in the United States: Barriers to Access." Health and Human Rights: an International Journal, vol. 4, no. 2 (2000), pp. 174-194.
- Goldberg, Kim. "Neo-Nazis and Pro-lifers; Violence Against Abortion Clinics." Canadian Dimension, vol. 29, no. 2 (April, 1995), p. 30.
- Gordon, Linda and Allen Hunter. "Sex, Family and the New Right." Radical America, vol. 11, no. 6/ vol. 12, no. 1 (November, 1977-February 1978), pp. 9-25.
- Greene, Leonard. "Operation Rescue Makes Schools Next Battleground." The Boston Herald (February 14, 1997), p. 6.
- Hartmann, Betsy. "Reclaiming the Challenge: Claiming the Ground Between Anti-abortion Activism and Aggressive Population Control Programs." Whole Earth Review (December 22, 1995), p. 14.
- Himmelstein, Jerome L. "The Social Basis of Antifeminism: Religious Networks and Culture." Journal for the Scientific Study of Religion, vol. 25, no. 1 (March, 1986), pp. 1-15.
- Hopkins, Nick and Steve Richter. "Social Movement Rhetoric and the Social Psychology of Collective Action: A Case Study of Anti-abortion Mobilization." Human Relations (March 1997), p. 261.
- Hoyt, Mike. "Abortion: Partial Truths." Columbia Journalism Review (May/June 1997), p. 12.
- "Is Abortion the Issue?" Panel discussion held at the New School for Social Research. Judy Woodruff served as moderator. Participants: Linda Gordon, Sidney Callhan, Ellen Willis, Ellen Wilson Fielding. Harper's Magazine, vol. 273 (July, 1986), p. 35.
- Leahy, Peter James. "The Anti-Abortion Movement: Testing a Theory of Social Movements." Ph.D. dissertation, Syracuse University (September, 1975).
- Lewin, Tamar. "Malpractice Lawyers' New Target; Abortion Doctors." Medical Economics, vol. 72, no. 12 (June 26, 1995), p. 53.
- Luker, Kristin. "The War Between the Women." Family Planning Perspectives, vol. 16, no. 3 (May/June, 1984), pp. 105-110.
- Marshall, Susan E. "Rattle on the Right: Bridge Labor in Antifeminist Organizations." No Middle Ground: Women and Radical Protest, ed. Kathleen Blee, op. cit. In "Secondary Sources: Books," pp. 155-179.

Mason, Carol. "Cracked Babies and the Partial Birth of a Nation: Millennialism and Fetal Citizenship." Cultural Studies, vol. 14, no. 1, (2000), pp. 35-60.

_____. "From Protest to Retribution: The Guerrilla Politics of Pro-life Violence." New Political Science, vol. 22, no. 1 (2000), pp. 11-29.

_____. "Minority Unborn." In Fetal Subjects: Feminist Positions, eds. Lynn Morgan and Meredith Michaels, op. cit. in "Secondary Sources: Books", pp. 159-174.

Monaghan, Peter. "Making Babies with New Technologies: New Books Examine the Evolving Political Status of the Fetus." The Chronicle of Higher Education (July 30, 1999), A10.

"New Catholic Group Promotes Right to Life." The Toronto Star (October 1, 1994), p. K16.

Olsson, Karen. "Abortion Rights." The Texas Observer (April 2, 1999), pp. 10-12.

Petchesky, Rosalind Pollack. "Fetal Images: The Power of Visual Culture in the Politics of Reproduction." Feminist Studies, vol. 13, no. 2 (Summer, 1987), pp. 263-288.

"Preachers of Hate." The Progressive (December 1998), p. 8.

"Pro-life Terrorism: A How-to." Excerpt from "The Army of God." Harper's Magazine (January, 1995), vol. 289, no. 1736, p. 19.

Puga, Ana. "Radicalizing Right to Life." The Boston Globe (October 30, 1994), p. 26.

Rodriguez, Lori. "Rightist Minorities Open First Conference." The Houston Chronicle (October 1, 1994), p. 34.

Rome, Nik. "What Life Expectancy for Abortion Pep?" Money Marketing (October 1, 1998), p. 48.

Ross, Loretta J. "Anti-abortionists and White Supremacists Make Common Cause." The Progressive, vol. 58, no. 10 (October, 1994), p. 24.

Samuels, David. "The Making of a Fugitive." The New York Times Magazine (March 21, 1999), p. 47.

"Some Antiabortion Activists Question Consequences of GOP Welfare Reform." The Washington Post (February, 1, 1995), p. A4.

Swomley, John M. "Catholics and the Religious Right." The Humanist, vol. 56, no. 2 (March, 1996), p. 36.

Swope, Christopher. "Abortion: Chapter II." Governing Magazine (May 1998), p. 44.

Tannenbaum, Leora. "The Abortionist: A Woman Against the Law." The Nation, vol. 260, no. 4 (January 30, 1995), p. 142.

Turque, Bill. "Aborted Revolution?" Newsweek (December 12, 1994), p. 38.

Wills, Garry. "Evangel of Abortion." New York Review of Books (June 15, 1989), pp. 15-21.

Wolf, Naomi. "Our Bodies, Our Souls: Rethinking Pro-Choice Rhetoric." The New Republic (October 16, 1995), pp. 26-35.

Wyatt, Sarah. "Late-term Abortion Bar Upheld in Wisconsin." The Boston Globe (May 29, 1999), p. A3.

Reproductive Rights Bibliography

(Secondary Sources)

Books

Blanchard, Dallas A. The Anti-Abortion Movement and the Rise of the Religious Right: From Polite to Fiery Protest. New York: Twayne Publishers, 1994.

A concise history of how and why the anti-abortion movement arose and what its philosophies and inner workings consist of today.

Blee, Kathleen M. ed. No Middle Ground: Women and Radical Protest. New York: New York University Press, 1998.

A collection of articles about radical women on both the right and the left, including anti-feminists.

Center for Reproductive Law & Policy. Tipping the Scales: The Christian Right's Legal Crusade Against Choice. New York: Center for Reproductive Law and Policy, 1998.

A very useful collection of descriptions of legal organizations that support anti-choice efforts.

Conover, Pamela Johnston and Virginia Gray. Feminism and the New Right: Conflict over the American Family. New York: Praeger Publishers, 1983.

An early study of the pro-family movement and its impact on the ERA and abortion.

Diamond, Sara. Spiritual Warfare: The Politics of the Christian Right. Boston: South End Press, 1989.

The definitive critique of the spectrum of Christian Right politics, from televangelists and electoral politics within the Republican Party to millennialists and international missionary work. Includes an important chapter on right-wing women activists.

Dula, Annette and Sara Goering, eds. "It Just Ain't Fair": The Ethics of Health Care for African Americans. Westport, CT: Praeger, 1994.

A collection of articles on a wide range of topics relating to health care for the African American community.

Ehrenreich, Barbara and Deidre English. Witches, Midwives, and Nurses: A History of Women Healers. Old Westbury, NY: The Feminist Press, 1973.

The first feminist pamphlet to connect the decline of midwives with the rise of the medical establishment's control over women's reproductive rights.

Eisenstein, Zillah R. Feminism and Sexual Equality: Crisis in Liberal America. New York: Monthly Review Press, 1984.

In questioning the direction of liberal thought, this book critiques both conservatives like Phyllis Schlafly and her vision of family life and the gender politics of liberals, seeing both as fundamentally patriarchal and anti-feminist.

Feinman, Clarice, ed. The Criminalization of a Woman's Body. New York: Harrington Park Press, 1992.

A review of legal theories that intervene in women's reproductive choices from abortion, surrogate motherhood, and prenatal "child abuse," including crack babies. The focus is on how the law stigmatizes women who deviate from traditional sex-role norms.

Fried, Marlene Gerber, ed. From Abortion to Reproductive Freedom: Transforming a Movement. Boston: South End Press, 1990.

A comprehensive collection of essays, some valuable classics, that powerfully argues for expanding the abortion movement to make it more inclusive of race, class and cultural concerns.

Fried, Marlene and Loretta Ross. Reproductive Freedom: Our Right to Decide, Pamphlet no. 18. Westfield, NJ: Open Media, 1992.

A classic call for women's self determination in all areas of reproductive rights, not just abortion.

Ginsburg, Faye D. Contested Lives: The Abortion Debate in an American Community. Berkeley: University of California Press, 1989.

An updated edition of a 1987 study of Fargo, North Dakota and the pro-choice and pro-life narratives that evolved among its residents.

Gorney, Cynthia. Articles of Faith: A Frontline History of the Abortion Wars. New York, NY: Simon & Schuster, 1998.

A moving chronicle of the growth of partisan alignments around the issue of abortion using the stories of individuals deeply affected by abortion politics in Missouri from the '60s to the '90s.

Guttmacher, Alan, ed. The Case for Legalized Abortion. Berkeley: Diablo Press, 1967.

Written by a champion of women's reproductive rights in the pre-Roe era of state-level anti-abortion statutes, this book helped to repeal many of those restrictive laws.

Hartmann, Betsy. Reproductive Rights and Wrongs: The Global Politics of Population Control. Boston: South End Press, 1995.

A classic 1987 analysis of population policies and their effect on women's lives updated with an introduction by Helen Rodriguez-Trias.

Irvine, Janice. Talk about Sex: The Cultural Politics of Sexuality Education. New York: Oxford University Press, forthcoming 2001.

A comprehensive history of the Right's assault on sexuality education with a focus on its attacks of Planned Parenthood and SIECUS.

Jacoby, Kerry. Souls, Bodies, Spirits: The Drive to Abolish Abortion since 1973. Westport, CT: Praeger, 1998.

A social history of the religious anti-abortion movement, interspersed with sociological theories that help explain the movement.

Kinder, Donald R., and Lynn M. Sanders. Divided by Color: Racial Politics and Democratic Ideals. Chicago, IL: The University of Chicago Press, 1996.

Explores the terrain of recent American racial politics by examining public opinion toward policies on race.

Luker, Kirsten. Abortion and the Politics of Motherhood. Berkeley: University of California Press, 1984.

Based on extensive interviews on both sides of the abortion conflict in California, the author presents a convincing case that it is deeply rooted world view differences, not merely political disagreements, that define the positions.

MacWilliams, Cosgrove, Smith, Robinson. An Exploration of Young Women's Attitudes Towards Pro-Choice. Report Commissioned by the Pro-Choice Public Education Project. Mamaroneck, NY: self published, 1997.

This useful analysis of focus groups with young women reveals the extent to which anti-choice activists have affected their attitudes.

McKeegan, Michele. Abortion Politics: Mutiny in the Ranks of the Right. New York: Free Press, 1992.

An important history of the anti-choice movement, focusing on the Reagan administration. Includes a description of the widening splits among post-Reagan political strategists over how to use changes in public opinion about abortion effectively.

Melich, Tanya. The Republican War Against Women: An Insider's Report From Behind the Lines. New York, NY: Bantam Books, 1996.

This book discusses the changes in the Republican agenda, which sought to dismantle the gains made by women during the Reagan and Bush administrations.

Merton, Andrew. Enemies of Choice: The Right-to-Life Movement and its Threat to Abortion. Boston: Beacon Press, 1981.

A very readable, early expose of the anti-choice movement from a liberal journalist's perspective.

Mohr, James C. Abortion in America: The Origins and Evolution of National Policy, 1800-1900. New York: Summit Books, 1983.

A comprehensive history of the dramatic shift in abortion social policy in the United States during the nineteenth century.

Morgan, Lynn M. and Meredith W. Michaels, eds. Fetal Subjects: Feminist Positions. Philadelphia: University of Pennsylvania Press, 1999.

This collection of feminist essays reflects on the developing field of fetal medical ethics and civil rights and dares to ask disquieting questions of the pro-choice movement. The introduction and afterword are especially challenging to our assumptions about what it means to be pro-choice and feminist.

Noonan, John T. A Private Choice: Abortion in America in the Seventies. New York: Free Press, 1979.

A description of immediately-post-Roe America by a Constitutional historian.

Novick, Michael. White Lies White Power: The Fight Against White Supremacy and Reactionary Violence. Munroe, ME: Common Courage Press, 1995.

An overview of the white power movement's issues with a chapter on links between the Klan, neo-nazis and the anti-abortion movement.

O'Connor, Karen. No Neutral Ground? Abortion Politics in an Age of Absolutes. Boulder, CO: Westview Press, 1996.

Published as part of a "Dilemmas in American Politics" series, this book portrays the abortion politics as a polarized debate. Useful documentation of the history of abortion opposition in the U.S.

Paige, Connie. The Right to Lifers: Who They Are, How They Operate, Where They Get Their Money. New York: Summit Books, 1983.

An early, very readable book about anti-choice men and women and their relationships with the New Right.

Petchesky, Rosalind Pollack. Abortion and Woman's Choice: The State, Sexuality, and Reproductive Freedom. New York: Longman, 1984.

An important feminist analysis of sexual politics, reproductive freedom and the symbolism of abortion for both the Right and the Left.

Risen, James and Judy Thomas. Wrath of Angels: The American Abortion War. New York: Basic Books, 1998.

This highly readable account, written by two investigative journalists, chronicles twenty years in the lives of several key personalities in the abortion debate.

Roberts, Dorothy. Killing the Black Body: Race, Reproduction, and the Meaning of Liberty. New York: Vintage Books, 1999.

A thorough, chilling summary of the systematic abuse of African American women's bodies.

Schroedel, Jean Ruth. Is the Fetus a Person?: A Comparison of Policies Across the Fifty States. Ithaca, NY: Cornell U. Press, 2000.

A comprehensive comparison of how each state responds to abortion and a range of child welfare issues concludes that states with stronger anti-choice laws have less support for children once they are born.

Silliman, Jael and Ynestra King, eds. Dangerous Intersections: Feminist Perspectives on Population, Environment, and Development. Cambridge, MA: South End Press, 1999.

These articles, assembled by the Committee on Women, Population and the Environment, highlight the connections between population policy and women's lives, especially their reproductive rights. Useful reflections on the impact of conservative thinking on global policies affecting women.

Solinger, Rickie, ed. Abortion Wars: A Half-Century of Struggle 1950-2000. Berkeley: University of California Press, 1998.

An important collection of essays reflecting on the abortion controversy in the U.S. over the last fifty years.

Spelman, Elizabeth V. Inessential Woman: Problems of Exclusion in Feminist Thought. Boston: Beacon Press, 1988.

A philosophical analysis of the limitations of feminism, with a section on gender and race.

Steinhoff, Patricia G., and Milton Diamond. Abortion Politics: The Hawaii Experience. Honolulu: University Press of Hawaii, 1977.

A description of the early electoral struggles for abortion rights in Hawaii, the first state to repeal its anti-abortion statute in 1970.

Swomley, John M. Compulsory Pregnancy: The War Against American Women. Amherst, NY: Humanist Press, 1999.

A collection of reprints from the President of Americans for Religious Liberty, these essays are reflections from a faith-based perspective on the moral issues related to abortion.

Tatalovich, Raymond and Byron W. Daynes. The Politics of Abortion: A Study of Community Conflict in Public Policymaking. New York: Praeger, 1981.

Through an historical review, the authors reflect on the abortion controversy from an objective, social science-focused, perspective. Examines the governmental structures that support public policy decision-making.